

A CALL FOR ACTION
ON FOOD & FARMS

COMMUNITY
FOOD STRATEGIES

JOIN US FOR A

FARM & FOOD THEMED CANDIDATES' FORUM

OCTOBER 26, 6-8:30 P.M. HAYTI HERITAGE CENTER,
804 FAYETTEVILLE STREET, DURHAM

Sustainable food leaders, advocates, and local elected officials are coming together to show why food and farm issues should be a priority. Local candidates will talk about why this is important to Durham, and we will call on the next president to ensure that all Americans have access to healthy, affordable food that is fair to workers and good for farmers and the environment.

6:00-6:45PM

MEET AND GREET WITH ELECTED OFFICIALS AND CANDIDATES

Local food prepared by chefs Ricky Moore of Saltbox Seafood Joint and Andrea Reusing of The Restaurant at The Durham. Tickets are free, but only 100 are available!

7:00-8:30PM

MODERATED Q&A WITH CANDIDATES ABOUT FARM AND FOOD POLICY

This event is open to the first 400 people to arrive.

THE PLATE OF THE UNION FOOD TRUCK WILL BE OUT FRONT AS IT CONTINUES ON IT'S NATIONWIDE TOUR OF BATTLE GROUND STATES.

RSVP at bit.ly/FarmFoodForum or on Facebook @DurhamFarmAndFoodNetwork

PERFORMANCE BY LOCAL SPOKEN WORD ARTIST TONE TOUCH • MUSIC BY DJ PDOGG

Childcare, Spanish interpretation and parking all available at the event.

Thanks to our Co-sponsors:

Durham NAACP, Durham Co-op Market, Eno River Association, Green, Interfaith Food Shuttle, MomsRising, NC WARN, Recyclique/a project of CommunEcos, Reinvestment Partners, The Scrap Exchange, Slow Money NC, Student Action with Farmworkers, and Toxic Free NC.

Plate of the Union is a collaborative campaign driven by Food Policy Action, Food Policy Action Education Fund, the Union of Concerned Scientists, and the HEAL Food Alliance to call on the next President to take action on food and farming. More can be found at www.plateoftheunion.com

FOOD POLICY ACTION
EDUCATION FUND

HEAL
FOOD ALLIANCE
health • environment • agriculture • labor